Political Science

Learn how power and authority shape democracy, law, the economy, society and international relations.

In Political Science you will:

- Actively engage with world and national events.
- Develop the skills for exciting and meaningful careers in the public, private, and not-for-profit sectors.
- Join a vibrant, innovative and high-quality learning environment with unique courses.
- Be part of a community and experientially-based program that challenges conventional boundaries.

Enrol in our four-year Political Science program to explore and investigative solutions.

What will I study?

- Activism and Advocacy
- Anti-Racism and Social Justice
- Business and Society
- Capitalism and the Economy
- Class, Ethnic and Gender Inequalities
- Colonialism and the Global South
- Community Development and Planning
- Democracy and Authoritarianism
- Indigenous Rights
- International Relations and Development
- Labour and Employment
- Sustainability and Environmental Justice

What can I do with my degree?

Graduates will be prepared for careers in:

- Business management
- Communication
- Community organizing and outreach
- Consulting
- Foreign service and diplomacy
- Journalism
- Law
- Non-governmental organization outreach
- Policing
- Policy and public administration

Many of our graduates also attend Law School and/or pursue advanced degrees in Political Science, Public Policy, and Environmental Studies.

Want more information?

Faculty of Social Science and Humanities
2000 Simcoe Street North
Oshawa, Ontario L1G 0C5
Canada

905.721.3190
connect@ontariotechu.ca
ontariotechu.ca/programs

Ontario Tech UNIVERSITY

If you require an alternative format of this publication, contact marketing@ontariotechu.ca.